About twenty friends and schoolmates of the little guest of honor will be present. Games and amusements in keeping with the age of the members of the party will be provided and they will be served with a luncheon.

The marriage of Miss Carrie Dunyon and Samuel Ashby took place last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Dunyon, the ceremony being performed by Dr. D. M. Heimick, of the First Methodist church, in the presence of the relatives of the young couple. The ceremony was followed by a dinner for the bride and groom and relatives, a reception being given from 8 until 11. The bride wore a dainty gown of white crepe de chene and carried a bride's roses. She was attended by Miss Pearl Anderson and Miss Effie Dolstead as bridesmaids. They wore gowns of pale blue silk and carried pink carnations. The bridesmaids and Estelle Dunyon were the flower girls and wore little frocks of white Swiss and carried baskets of roses. Al Sadenberg was the best man. The parlor where the ceremony was performed was beautifully decorated with white roses and syringas, the flowers being arranged in sprays along the mantel and vases. The bow window was banked with palms and roses. Assisting the bride and groom in receiving were Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Dunyon, Miss Eva Dunyon, Miss Eva Dunyon played the Mendelssohn wedding march as the bridal party descended the stairs and during the ceremony the Spring Song. The dining room was prettily decorated with pink roses and carnations, a mound of flowers being in the center of the table with runners of smilax and roses extending to the four corners. Assisting during the evening were Miss Ruth Taylor and Miss Priscilla Paul. Punch was served in one corner of the veranda by Miss Elsie D. Armer. The decorations in the library were entirely in red, roses and carnations being effectively combined. ## Belmont School

For Boys Belmont, California

SCHOOL WORK SUFFERED NO INTERRUPTION THROUGH RECENT EARTHQUAKE.

Near San Francisco. Has never since it opened been without representation at Harvard and the University of California, and a Stanford since the University opened. It sends boys to Yale, the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and to other Colleges and Schools of Science. Beginning with August, 1906, the teaching force will be sufficiently strengthened to make possible a still more careful classification of pupils according to ability and attainments. Keeping horses, begun as an experiment this year, will be continued under the direction of a teacher, if a sufficient number of parents wish it. There is nowhere a more beautiful place than Belmont, nor a more healthful and stimulating climate. The next term begins August 15, 1906. For catalogue and book of views, address W. T. REID, Jr., A. M. (Harvard), Head Master, Belmont School, Belmont, Cal.
